

Test Review, Ch 11 & 12

1. Washington called up an army to crush the Whisky Rebellion because he saw the rebellion as a _____ to the new governments authority.
2. In his Farewell Address, George Washington urged Americans not to let political parties _____.
3. According to the Federalists, the best form of government was one in which the decisions were made by the _____.
4. One of the major divisions between the Federalists and Republican Parties was how large and powerful the _____ should be.
5. The Republicans viewed the Alien and Sedition acts as an attack on the _____ Amendment right to _____.
6. The idea that states may nullify federal laws is called the _____ theory of the Constitution.
7. The election of 1800 showed that power could pass peacefully from _____ in a democracy.
8. Thomas Jefferson dressed _____ in _____ clothes.
9. A _____ source is an eyewitness account.
10. A _____ source is written by a historian.
11. In his Farewell Address, George Washington urged Americans not to let political parties _____.
12. “Millions for defense, not a cent for tribute!” could be a slogan that summarizes American’s response to _____.
13. After going to war, France and Britain began seizing U.S. ships because they wanted to _____.
14. _____ were hurt most by Jefferson’s embargo policy.
15. British ships _____ American sailors because they claimed that they were deserters from the Royal Navy.
16. The western _____ were eager for war against Britain because they hoped to drive Britain out of Canada.
17. The Battle of New Orleans:

- a. Was the greatest _____ victory in the war
 - b. Made a hero out of _____
 - c. Took place _____ the war was over.
18. The _____ warned European nations to leave America to the Americans.
19. The _____ on the Great Seal represents national power.
20. The stars and stripes on the Great Seal represents the original _____.
21. The phrase _____ means out of many people, one nation.
22. The Barbary Coast is found in the _____ Continent.
23. Barbary Pirates attacked ships in the _____ Sea.
24. President Jefferson sent _____ to stop the Barbary Pirates.
25. _____ wrote the words to the national anthem.
26. The national anthem describes events that took place during the _____.
27. The anthem describes the bombardment of _____.
28. A _____ is a defensive wall of fortification.
29. _____ and _____ in the anthem show that the flag still waved.
30. Be prepared to talk about whether each of the first 5 presidents was isolationist or for involvement and provide 2-3 sentences of reasons why.
31. Understand the major differences between the Federalist and Republican party.